MISSION

Of Vessel Sent to Venezuela Will be Peaceful

TO CARRY DISPATCHES

Extreme Measures Are Not Contemplated at Present Time

President May be Authorized to Bring Castro to Realization of American Demands.

Washington, April 22.—The Senate committee on foreign relations today took up the consideration of the course of action to be pursued in dealing with President Castro and the claims against Venezuela. Although the state department insists that nothing is being done looking toward a hostile demonstration, yet the Dubuque and Paducah have been ordered to La Guayra from Haytian waters, and the Des Moines will probably follow in a few days. The presence of bubonic plague in Venezuela just now, however, is a greater protection to Castro than his fighting men.

Washington, April 22.—An American war vessel will be sent to Venezuelan waters, but her mission is to be an entirely peaceful one. The closing of the port of La Guayra because of the existence of what is believed to be bubonic plague there, has made it necessary for the state department to have a dispatch boat by Minister Russell in sending messages to Curacao, or Port of Spain, Trinidad, and for taking cablegrams to him from the state department.

One of the smaller gunboats now in West Indian waters will be utilized for this purpose. This vessel will ply between Porto Cabello and the nearest cable station. Puerto Cabello, according to Minister Russell's dispatch to the state department, today is still open.

That no plans have been matured to govern intercourse with Venezuela in the future was stated by the state department officials. Minister Russell, it is said here, probably will not leave Caracas, pending possible action by the United States Congress on the American claims now pending before the Senate committee on foreign relations. It is understood this committee is to deal with the Venezuelan question today. It is also understood at the state department that this action may take the form of a resolution authorizing the president to use whatever means he may deem necessary to bring President Castro to a realization of the necessity of complying with the American demands for arbitration.

Should such an authorization be made, the course to be decided will then be taken up. It is stated that there is little likelihood of extreme measures being resorted to.

It is said at the state and navy departments that the question of sending a cruiser or other naval vessel to Venezuelan waters is not contemplated and will not be considered unless the situation changes.

LOCAL OPTION FAILS IN ILLINOIS TOWNS

Chicago, April 22.—Local option forces were generally unsuccessful in the 40 or more towns and villages of Illinois which voted on that question. Definite figures are lacking in many cases, but it was certain that not more than 100 saloons were voted out of business. The larger communities almost without exception voting to retain their licensed places.

Cairo, the largest city in which the question was an issue, gave the saloons a majority of 3352. The principal exception to the general result were Effingham, Thomas, Pinckneyville and Naperville. Some 35 saloons lost their license in these four cities.

PEOPLE TURNED AWAY

Finds Congenial Spirits and Sympathetic
Hearts

Meets Mrs. Bryan, Daughter Ruth and Her Two Children, Who Have Been Abroad.

New York, April 22.—Rounding out a day that had a pleasant beginning in the welcoming of his family returning from a sojourn in Europe, and then carried him on a flying trip to Trenton, N. J., for a brief speech, William J. Bryan returned here last night and addressed the Civic Forum on the "Brotherhood of Man" at one of the largest gatherings ever assembled in historic Cooper Union. Mr. Bryan's lively day was ended at midnight when he made a brief address at the supper of the Missouri society.

Mr. Bryan made the trip to New York to greet his wife, his daughter, Mrs. Ruth Bryan Leavitt, and her two children, Ruth and Bryan Leavitt, returning on board the steamer Minnehaha, which arrived early yesterday. While the steamer was in dock little Bryan Leavitt mischievously hid under the stateroom berth and a long search, led by his anxious grandfather, delayed Mr. Bryan on board, and he missed his train for Trenton.

At the Trenton opera house in the afternoon Mr. Bryan advocated the election of the United States senators by the people direct, and characterized Secretary Taft's proposal for the reasonable regulation of "trusts" as "feasible as the regulation of burglaries by law."

Several hundred people were turned away from Cooper Union last night unable to find seats and when Mr. Bryan arrived he was greeted with much applause. He said in part:

"I am getting so that I feel quite at home in New York. I find in this great center of activity very kind, congenial spirits and sympathetic hearts."

"I devoted the best of my life to the science of government, but I recognize that no matter how good government may be we miss its blessings. No matter how much we may be absorbed in issues and methods of government we cannot be indifferent to the many kinds of work to be carried on. I am glad to show my interest in and sympathy with the object of uplifting the individual and advancing the good of the community."

"Here is my definition of civilization. The harmonious development of the human race physically, mentally and morally, a development of the three-fold man. When we reach perfect development of all citizens we will have perfect civilization. Until we do our civilization must necessarily be imperfect. We are a part of civilization and we have an influence great or small on fixing the level of civilization. As we present such illustrations of the three requisites we raise the level of the nation and civilization."

MATT HURLEY MURDERED AT 10 O'CLOCK LAST NIGHT

George Prikogan, Roumanian, Arrested
by Police Wednesday Morning and Charged With the Crime

Trouble Occurs During a Brawl in House of Ill
Repute Located at 28 East Street
Occupied by Mary Thompson.

Matt Hurley, colored, aged 40 was murdered Tuesday night in a brawl at the house of Mary Thompson, colored, living at 28 East street, south of the B. and O. depot. The murder occurred shortly after 10 o'clock Hurley dying within fifteen minutes after being shot in the left side of the abdomen. George Prikogan, a Roumanian, aged 23 was arrested at 2 o'clock Wednesday morning, after being identified by the woman of the house, and charged with the crime.

Mary Thompson and Sadie Target, the latter a white woman, who has been staying at the Thompson house, were locked up Wednesday morning after identifying Prikogan as the man who, they allege, did the shooting.

An Advocate reporter interviewed the women Wednesday morning and found that their stories of the murder differed slightly as to certain minor details, while in general the facts tallied in their statements.

In the police investigation Tuesday night, it seems that their statements differed considerably as to the circumstances leading up to the shooting of Hurley.

The story told by the two women is to the effect that early in the evening Hurley and the Thompson woman were playing cards in the front room of the house. The women decided to retire early and, according to their story, the Target woman went to her room which is the back room of two on the second floor. Hurley occupied the front room, while the Thompson woman slept in the front room down stairs.

It is claimed that the Thompson woman called to Hurley at about 10 o'clock and told him there was some body knocking at the door and for him to see about it. Hurley had his clothes on and went down stairs to the back door where, it is claimed, he admitted Prikogan. The Target woman came down stairs after Hurley and the four went into the front room.

Sadie Target stated Wednesday morning that they sat there and talked for nearly three-quarters of an hour, when Hurley told the foreigner that the women were tired from working all day and wished to retire, and asked him to leave. She said that after a little while Prikogan said that he would go and started toward the kitchen door. She said that she saw Hurley extend his hand at the same time bidding the man good night. Just at that juncture, she said, the caller, Prikogan, pulled a blue steel revolver and shot, then turned and ran out the walk leading from the rear of the house toward the B. and O. tracks.

Hurley then staggered into the front room holding his hand over his abdomen crying that he had been shot. The women stated that they tried to quiet him and placed him on a couch. The Thompson woman ran to a telephone for a doctor, so she stated, and left Mrs. Target to bath Hurley's head. The Target woman said that within possibly ten or fifteen minutes after the shooting, when she offered Hurley some water, he refused it and expired.

Crisp Bros. & Jones' ambulance, Drs. W. E. Wiyarich and C. F. Legge and the police patrol were summoned, the police headquarters getting the alarm from Wells' saloon by telephone. The man was dead when the physicians arrived.

A careful search of the premises was instituted under the direction of Police Captain Bell, and the women were loaded into the patrol wagon and started for the Wehrle lodging houses. It was in the West End foreign settlement that Prikogan was identified by the women and taken into custody.

The search of the house resulted in the finding of a bundle of blood covered clothes and handkerchiefs in the room of the white woman, Sadie Target. When confronted with these by the officers the woman stated that she had used them that evening when she had an attack of nose bleeding, to which, she claims, she is subject quite frequently.

The whole party was taken to the city prison but later it was deemed advisable to remove the Target woman to the county jail.

Coroner L. L. Marriott, Deputy Coroner Wiyarich and Dr. C. F. Legge conducted an autopsy on the remains of the dead man at the Criss Bros. & Jones' undertaking rooms Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Hurley came to Newark from Mt. Vernon some time ago and secured a job as hod carrier at the Everett glass house. He first became famous in Newark several years ago and made a high dive into the canal from the roof of a warehouse. His life almost paid the penalty for his rash act, for he came to the surface mud was oozing from his mouth and nose and he was unconscious.

Hurley has been in Newark for some time past, except for a short time a few weeks ago when he was called to Mt. Vernon by the death of his mother. He is survived by two sisters, two brothers and two children. They are: Mrs. Linnie Gore of Chicago, Mrs. Mary Gibson of this city, Messrs. Biff Hurley of Mt. Vernon and Jay Hurley of Marion. He has two children, a boy and a girl, have lived in this city, and while the daughter is living with Mrs. Gibson in this city, the son is with Mr. Hurley of Marion.

Coroner Marriott, Deputy Coroner Wiyarich and Chief Zergiebel visited the Thompson home this morning and made a complete investigation of the premises. The house was thoroughly ransacked by the officials, and in a trunk, buried deep under some pillow cases, was found a 38 caliber revolver. One cartridge had been discharged and the gun had never been charged. The gun is of the hammer pattern.

According to the chief, the gun had not been discharged recently for the smoke and grime was not fresh enough to warrant the theory that it had been fired last night. After a careful note of the condition, the chief discharged it again and noted the difference. The recent discharge made the gun look entirely different than when it was first fired.

According to Mrs. Thompson this is the gun that was used by Fred Thompson when he shot a colored man by the name of Brooks some time ago. Mrs. Thompson claims the gun used last night was longer in the barrel.

Biff Hurley and Ben Nuble, the brother, and a friend of the murdered man, arrived in the city at noon and went directly to the undertaking parlors of Criss Brothers & Jones, where they viewed the corpse of Hurley.

Despite the testimony of both the Target and the Thompson women, the police do not think the Roumanian committed the crime, and the women will be held and given a thorough hearing. Then a dose of the third

MUSHROOMS

Will Soon be Ready to Pick—Description of Several of the Toothsome Species.

The season for the delicious spring mushroom is now upon us, and we have a few reports that they may be found already in the more exposed places, such as along the river bottoms. They naturally make their appearance first in the second bottoms that are liable to overflow, and if the weather is at all favorable to starting the mycelium it comes forward very rapidly in the loam and silt that has been deposited by the receding waters for it is a natural hobnob.

In about ten days after the tiger bottom mushrooms are up they appear in the deep woods and other unexposed places that may have the quality of soil necessary to produce this species of fungus.

This species of mushroom is so well known that a description is hardly necessary, but any of the fungi that partake of the nature of the honeycomb mushroom are edible and may be eaten with perfect safety.

The Morchella family of which there are many members and which is the group mentioned above, has a first cousin that is indigenous to this vicinity and is little known, but has edible qualities that quite surpass the well known Morrels. We refer to the Hellvella family of fungi, and the one that is now appearing under the name of "Gyromitra brunnea" is about as plenty as the common Morrel.

The reader is advised not to tackle the name as spelled above, but if you succeed in identifying this species you will certainly have a morsel fit for kings or the hired hands.

The writer, in company with another mushroom enthusiast, got one of the Hellvella species last season that weighed 17 ounces, and this kind is always considerably larger than the Morrels.

For purpose of identification it is described as follows:

Hellvella family—This group called in botanical language, Helvellaceae, contains such striking forms as the Morrels already mentioned above. The species called Gyromitra are at once to be recognized by their similarity to the Morrels by having the same quality of flesh and hollow walls, but much thicker than the Morrels. The cap is covered by the spore bearing layer, and is of a peculiar lobed or irregular form and the surface is covered with gyrose wrinkles, whereas the Morchellas have pits formed by longitudinal and transverse wrinkles. The Gyromitra have a cap of red-orange color—a deep shade. The mushroom is so irregular of form that no description of its shape will serve; only illustrations would make this point clear, but if any fungus shows up the general characteristics of the common spring mushroom, and is covered with ill shaped excrescences or lobes that are "warty" you have the Gyromitra. And it's good.

PRINTED BY REQUEST. DEVELOPS WOMAN'S CHARM.

Madame Moneaux, deceased beauty specialist, of New York, long possessed the greatest of all secrets pertaining to feminine charm. And what is this great secret, so much desired by women—the secret that has made a vast fortune for her, and all the famous actresses and society leaders for patrons?

"What, don't you know?" It is a simple, but sure method of developing the bust, arms and neck of women, who, through defect of nutrition and circulation, are humiliated by the appearance of their arms and bust. The treatment consists of applying a powerful but harmless nerve stimulant to the cells of the skin, to be absorbed separately, and nourishment to the flesh cells and tissues. Beautiful changes are wrought. Ugly, deformed women are developed into charming personages with well rounded arms and neck and full normal bust of exquisite curve and proportion so much admired in great society and society leaders. Any leading druggist will supply the ingredients to mix at home, and as they are used for various purposes, it is as simple as the use of tooth powder, and is the wisest as to what they are to be used for.

Shake well and apply to the neck, arms and bust, rubbing and massaging until completely absorbed; then wash thoroughly with hot water and soap and dry thoroughly. Apply morning and night regularly for several weeks and the most beautiful development will begin to reward the efforts. It is believed by experts to be the most necessary and effective prescription ever conceived.

This is worth keeping, if not for yourself, for some dear friend who needs it.

After making various other comments it was resolved to ask the club members for private donations and buy the razor and present it to the president for use in lieu of a gavel as the club must preserve order at their meetings at any cost.

TEXAS COUNTRY

Described in an Interesting Letter From Former Newark Lady Now in the Lone Star State.

Angleton, Texas, April 17.—I promised many readers of the Advocate when I left Newark that I would write a letter for our home paper, so after almost three months absence, I will attempt to make my promise good.

My husband, children and I left Newark January 10th, and arrived in Houston, Texas January 10th. We stopped there one week and were very much pleased with the city. It is a beautiful and pleasant place to live. Arrived at Angleton, Texas, January 17, 47 miles southeast of Houston on the I. N. G., also Brownsville railroad and 16 miles west of the gulf. It is a small town of 1,200 people and is the county seat of Brazoria. While it is not such a beautiful town, yet it could be improved. We need north-erners here, although there is a large number of them here now, and more coming all the time.

We have a large and very nice court house, our churches for the white and one for the colored, and a large school for white and also a large school for the colored children, although there are not many of them here. We have one paper printed twice a week published by a northern man, and a dozen different stores, groceries, meat shops, blacksmith and tinshop, livery stables and Smiths.

We have rented twenty acres, half mile southeast of town with cottage and barn, and have planted four and one-half acres with all kinds of vegetables, and also cotton. Can not farm so much land here as in the north for we can raise three and four crops in one year on the same land. So far everything we have planted is doing well. Potatoes and other garden truck is on market now, but was planted in January. Strawberries were on market in March. Dewberries now and are plentiful I could name many kinds of fruit but will not make my letter too long this time. Will say this for Texas. It is a beautiful country and a great climate. Three deaths in this place in two years—two elderly people and one small child. It is not a swamp as has been told. Any one that ever looked on a prairie knows it is level and rain could not run off as fast as on a hill. But we have some drains and now they have passed a law for drainage all over this part of Texas, and are preparing to put them through right away.

Land has advanced in price since we came here from twenty to forty-five dollars per acre, and the northerners think land is cheap at that. The soil is dark and some sandy. Most everything can be raised here. If tended right, people will have to come and stay a while to appreciate this place. Then they would not live in the north again. Always a breeze from the gulf, and flies and mosquitoes are no worse here than in the north. Will close with good wishes for the Advocate and my Newark friends.

OBITUARY

BRUCE PITTSFORD DAGUE.
On the morning of April 18, 1908, at 1 o'clock, just as another day was being unfolded, Bruce Pittsford Dague, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Dague, (who will be remembered as Miss Mabel Pittsford, formerly of Newark), of West Fifth avenue, Columbus, O., was called, after two weeks' illness of typhoid fever and cerebral meningitis to be an angel in God's house above.

While only four years old, he by his sweet ways endeared himself to all who knew him, for to know him was to love him.

A little sunbeam has withdrawn its shining light, this happy circle is broken, a place is vacant which never can be filled, yet God in his wisdom doeth all things well.

One little daughter, Beryl, aged two, is left to help cheer the parents' hearts, yet she who knoweth not what death is refuse to be comforted, for brother, her little playfellow and protector cometh not.

Funeral services were held from the home of the parents Sunday afternoon and were attended by many sympathizing friends and relatives. A beautiful sermon was preached by Rev. W. A. Smith, pastor of the Fifth avenue U. B. church, and burial was at Union cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to thank our friends and neighbors for their kindness shown at the death of our sister, Mrs. Griff Rosebraugh. Also to Rebecca lodge and the W. F. M. S. of Pataskala for the beautiful floral offerings. The Brothers and Sisters.

MURDERER OF JOE SPANGLER

MAY BE UNDER ARREST IN WATERY—MAN CLAIMS TO HAVE COMMITTED A MURDER.

For several days Chief Zergiebel and the marshal of Waverly have kept up a regular conversation, and the result may be the solving of a mystery. The marshal of that place called the head of the Newark police department over the phone the other day and asked if a murderer has been committed here recently.

He was told that there had been none so far as was known by the police, then he asked why the marshal had asked the question. The reply was that a man in that place had been overheard to remark that he had killed a man in Newark, Ohio. The chief replied that the only murder that had been committed here recently occurred last November, when Joe Spangler, a recluse, was killed at his little home several miles west of Newark.

The sheriff from that place drove into the country yesterday to place the man, who gave his name as Inlow under arrest until an investigation could be made. Another part of the case came to light today, when Constable Brooks of Justice Nash's court, went to Waverly with a warrant for the arrest of Archie Lee Inlow, formerly of this city.

The warrant was issued September 16, 1907, and was sworn to by Miss Olive M. Inlow, who charged her husband with non-support. The man was located today and the constable left on the next train to serve the warrant. Inlow has been working in the country, 20 miles from Waverly, and according to the word received by the chief here, he made the remark that he had killed a man recently.

Chief Zergiebel put an officer to work as soon as the first report reached him, looking up the history and character of Inlow, and last night he charged the marshal to place the man under arrest and hold him until the case could be investigated.

It should be admitted that there is some sincerity in the stand of the Republicans of Minnesota for tariff reform, although they do faintly express their adherence to the principles of Protection. There will be no serious quarrel among the true friends of tariff reform over the abstract question of Free Trade and Protection while they agree in sweeping away the intolerable abuses and inequities of the Dingley act. In the last election the Republicans of Minnesota gave an earnest of their principles by turning out Representative McCleary, who said he was in favor of repealing the tariff "upward instead of downward."

It is quite evident from the returns of immigration that the people of Europe are familiar with existing industrial conditions in this country. During last March the arrivals at Ellis Island were 100,000 less than in the corresponding month of last year, or, in exact figures, 23,226, against 124,963. It is predicted that for the present month there will be another decline of not less than 100,000 from the immigration of April last year.

Official information is vouchsafed that the Steel Trust will stand pat and fry all the fat out of the consumers that the tariff permits. Present high prices are to be maintained.

WHEN PROSPERITY WILL RETURN

(New York World.)
The number of idle freight cars, which was over 340,000 during January and part of February, was reduced to 296,000 in the middle of March.

Figures for the beginning of April show a net surplus of 305,000 cars, again making an unfavorable reading of the commercial and industrial barometer.

People are asking on every hand when good times will return. There is an answer in the tables which show no further back than last October and November shortages instead of a surplus of freight-carrying equipment. Prosperity will be re-established when these freight cars are all at work on the main lines, instead of standing empty on the side tracks.

If any one asks you if you have heard about the arrest of a milliner, don't bite. The answer will be because she stuck a pin in a "Merry Widow."

The pen is mightier than the sword. You can't write checks with a sword.

MISERY FROM INDIGESTION
VANISHES IN FIVE MINUTES

Diapiesin Will Digest For You 3000 Grains of Food and Overcome a Sour Stomach Five Minutes After.

Take your sour stomach—or maybe you call it Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gastritis or Catarrh of Stomach; it doesn't matter—take your stomach trouble right with you to your Pharmacist and ask him to open a 50 cent case of Pape's Diapiesin and let you eat one 22 grain Triangle and see it within five minutes there is left any trace of your former misery.

The correct name for your trouble is Food Fermentation—food souring; the Digestive organs become weak, there is lack of gastric juice; your food is only half digested, and you become affected with loss of appetite, pressure and fullness after eating, vomiting, nausea, heartburn, griping in bowels, tenderness in the pit of stomach, bad taste in mouth, constipation, pain in limbs, sleeplessness, belching of gas, biliousness, sick headache, nervousness, dizziness and many other similar symptoms.

EASTERTIDE BALL

OF GRAND CHAPTER OF ALPHA PI FRATERNITY A SPLENDID SUCCESS.

Hall Prettily Decorated for Occasion and Fine Supper Served—The Guests.

The Eastertide ball given by the Grand Chapter of the Alpha Pi Fraternity at Assembly hall on Monday evening, the initial event of the season was elaborate and beautiful.

Dancing began at 9 o'clock and about one hundred and twenty-five responded to the pretty invitations.

The hall decorations were exceedingly beautiful the entire arrangement being effected with the fraternity's colors of orange and black and the result was very pleasing. Streamers and festoons of the chosen hues were gracefully draped upon the walls and entwined on the chandeliers. Myriads of pennants were placed, those of the Newark fraternities to one panel, honoring the guests from the city, while another was made up of the pennants of Denison frats. The emblems of the sororities were prettily placed on the balcony. The whole arrangement, however, was featured by a large shield, emblematic of the pin, in orange and black and emblazoned with electric lights, throwing the skull and cross bones of the shield to notice, with an effect, which startling was still beautiful.

Dancing was enjoyed until eleven o'clock when supper was announced. The music was furnished by Wright's orchestra from Columbus, and their efforts added much to the success of the event, all the popular numbers were vocalized and were vigorously applauded. The two course supper was delicious, being prepared by Mrs. Gray. The tables, which were placed in the balcony, were artistic arrangements with the fraternity colors and the centerpiece was a bank of orange and black filled with hyacinths.

Dancing was resumed until two o'clock. The following were among those present:

Chaperones Mr. and Mrs. Edward Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Gillette, Mr. and Mrs. Mazer; Misses Irene George, Nellie Jones, Editha Hall, Leonie Moore, Pearl Hayes, Eagen, Alice Young, Marion Hatch, Verna Harding, Ruth Hatch, Mary Hillier, Eleanor Beecher, Lenora Phillips, Ruth Allen, Sarah Seymour, Grace Dick, Marguerite Matticks, Anna Davis, Winifred Fulton, Mabel Moore, Helen Dick, Helen Redman, Ruth Rickert, Winifred Evans, Helen Rugg, Hannah Sullivan, Mollie Schenberg, Attie Beal, Elizabeth Sohn, Irene Henthorne, Rhea Ingler, Shepardon, Addie Jones, Annette Besuden, Gladys Beecher, Maria Lydia, Louise Jones, Bruner, Spray Douce, Eva Tedrick, Boxana Allen, Ethol Brillhart, Verona Martin, Ruth Wintermute, Mary Pollett, Elizabeth Spencer, Mary Nichols Corinne Miller, Helen Tyrer, Margory Collins, Lina Shaffer, Mabel Young, Helen Pigg, Frances Collins; Messrs. other similar symptoms. If your appetite is fickle, and nothing tempts you, or you belch gas or if you feel bloated after eating, or your food lies like a lump of lead on your stomach, you can make up your mind that at the bottom of all this there is but one cause.

Call your stomach trouble by any name you will, but prove to yourself that the real and only cause is Food Fermentation—Sour Stomach.

A case of Pape's Diapiesin costs only 50 cents and tells plainly on the label the name of each ingredient, to show that these Triangles are as harmless as candy—though each Triangle will promptly digest 3,000 grains of food.

Prove to yourself, after your next meal, that your stomach is as good as any; that there is nothing really wrong. Stop this fermentation and begin eating what you want without fear of discomfort or misery.

Your relief is waiting for you. It is merely a matter of how soon you take the first Triangle.

MODERN METHODS

How They Have Improved a Standard Remedy.

In the 17th Century a wave of excitement swept over England and France when the medical profession discovered such wonderful curative elements in the cod's liver.

In the 18th Century cod liver oil was imported and used extensively by physicians in this country, but it was found to be adulterated to a great extent, and the useless heavy oil which enveloped the medicinal elements, a great hindrance to its medicinal value.

In 1855 a famous physician from the Hague went to Norway and after two years of experiment and research produced a light brown oil from the cod's livers which was said to be more valuable than the pale yellow oil, but the taste and odor was so repulsive that it frequently caused such nausea that it made it unpopular.

The most valuable discovery, however, was later made by two eminent French chemists, who after years of research discovered an extractive and concentrating process, by which all of the medicinal, healing and body building elements of the cod's liver are separated from the useless and nauseating oil, these recovered medicinal elements combined with peptonate-of-iron make Vinol the most scientific and valuable cod liver preparation which the world has ever known.

Vinol is so rich in the elements of life that it imparts vigor to all debilitated and feeble conditions and is unexcelled as a remedy for all pulmonary troubles.

Try Vinol on our guarantee to return your money, if it fails to give satisfaction. Frank D. Hall, Druggist, Newark, Ohio.

DENISON TRUSTEES

HELD SPRING MEETING AT CLEVELAND HALL AND COMMITTEE REPORTS.

Newark High School Teachers and Pupils Will Journey to Granville

Granville, O., April 22—The Denison trustees met in their first session of the spring meeting at Cleveland Hall on Tuesday evening, April 21, at 7 o'clock. There were present beside President Hunt, G. M. Peters, of Cincinnati; J. R. Davies of Newark, Dr. G. E. Leonard of Norwalk, Dr. G. W. Lasher and V. R. Shepard of Cincinnati; E. M. Thresher and J. B. Thresher of Dayton; Rev. C. J. Rose, Dr. C. J. Baldwin, Burton Case and J. M. Swartz of Granville; S. F. Van Voorhis of Newark; Rev. B. F. Patt of Sidney; Dr. H. P. Whidden of Dayton; Ambrose Swasey, Dr. H. F. Stillwell and Rev. Mr. Brelsford of Cleveland; C. T. Lewis and J. G. Lawson of Toledo.

At this trustees' meeting for the first time the complete report of the building committee appointed nearly six years ago, was rendered. The building operations under the direction of this committee have been so continuous that no complete report could be given until now. The amount achieved is surprising. The buildings erected during the six years represent an outlay of about $250,000, and the equipment of Barney Science hall brings the amount up to about $400,000. The building projects for this period include the remodeling and furnishing of Marsh and Talbot dormitories on Denison hill; the installation of the central heating, lighting and power plant connected with 15 college buildings and the Granville Baptist church; the erection of Cleveland hall as a gymnasium and Y. M. C. A. building; of Doane gymnasium for young women; of beautiful Stone hall the newest and finest building on the Shepherdson campus, and the construction of a fine pipe organ in Recital hall. In addition to these notable undertakings, the president's mansion has been erected, and the splendid system of landscape architecture has been inaugurated by Mr. E. J. Barry at a cost of some $20,000, including the expensive system of cement walks, flights of steps, terminal pillared gateways retaining walls, piazzas, and arborea decorations. The system of electric clocks connected with a central master clock is the fine gift of the class of 1906.

A large delegation of the teachers and advanced pupils of the Newark High school, numbering about 100 are coming to Granville next Saturday morning to inspect the equipment of Barney Science hall. Prof. Clark W. Chamberlin has consented to give an exhibition to the visitors of his wonderful inventions for minute measurement, and the geological and engineering departments will also be on exhibition. It is expected that an early date a similar opportunity will be given to the Granville High schools and perhaps to some other neighboring schools. The number who have expressed a desire to come from the Newark High school is so large as to make two dates necessary in order to accommodate the other schools.

PRESBYTERY

Concludes Its Granville Session and Adjourns After Passing Set of Resolutions.

Granville, O., April 22—The Zanesville Presbytery, holding sessions in the Presbyterian church of Granville for the past two days, adjourned on Tuesday night until June 13, when there will be a meeting at Dresden, for the installation of Rev. D. W. McLeod, of Western Theological Seminary (Allegheny), as pastor of the Dresden Presbyterian church. The afternoon session was full of interesting discussions on the Home Mission fields, there being a great demand for live energetic ministers. The committee considered one sermon a month from an enthusiastic minister better than a sermon every Sunday from a man lacking in force and zeal. The Home Mission committee was ready to pay a good salary to the right kind of a minister in these needy fields, but thought it a waste of the Lord's money to pay a man simply to keep the churches in existence. The evening session closed with a rousing speech by Attorney E. J. Moore, state assistant superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league. He spoke

Y., MAKING INQUIRY CONCERNING THE DESCENDANTS OF THE LATE WILLIAM SPARKS OF THIS COUNTY, AND WHICH WAS PUBLISHED IN MONDAY'S ADVOCATE, CAME AS A GREAT SURPRISE TO THE REV. L. C. SPARKS, PASTOR OF THE FIRST M. E. CHURCH, OF THIS CITY, WHO IS A HALF BROTHER OF W. W. SPARKS, WHOSE SON MADE THE INQUIRY. W. W. SPARKS LEFT THE OLD HOME NEAR BROWNVILLE, THIS COUNTY, DURING THE CIVIL WAR, AND HAS NOT BEEN HEARD FROM SINCE. HIS RELATIVES HERE SUPPOSED THAT HE HAD LONG SINCE DIED. THE BROTHERS OF WHOM HE SEEKS INFORMATION, HAVE JOINED THE GREAT MAJORITY IN THE ETERNAL CITY. E. F. SPARKS, THE OLDEST OF THE FAMILY, RESIDES AT WILLIAMSBURG, O.

Rev. Mr. Sparks Half Brother of the Letter Writer's Father, Who Had Not Been Heard From Since War.

There was a maid and her name was Dent, who never said a word but what she meant. She had the reputation of being sincere, and what she did say was said without fear. She had read an advertisement of Spartan Stain, and thought she'd test the truth of the maker's claim. Now she paints the furniture, the woodwork and the floors, the picture frames and mouldings, and the old sereous doors; and she says there's nothing half as good that you can buy—you can do your own wood finishing and not half try. And she means it. Spartan Stain is the easiest working Varnish Stain on the market. Made by the Marietta Paint & Color Co., Marietta, Ohio. Sold by the Newark Paint Co., 31 West Church street, Newark, Ohio.

SHE MEANS WHAT SHE SAYS.

It is a woman's prerogative to be beautiful. Much depends upon the complexion; in fact, a glowing, sparkling skin atones for a multitude of nature's little faults in shaping the features. In addition to outdoor exercise, correct diet and regular hours, every woman should use some harmless preparation for keeping the skin in perfect condition and the complexion at its best. The following wash has accomplished wonders with the complexions of thousands of women throughout this country. It is perfectly harmless to the tenderest skin and its beneficial effects can be seen immediately upon beginning its use. Obtain at your drug store Rose Water, 2 ounces; Cologne Spirits, 1 ounce; Eppotone (skin food), 4 ounces. Put the Eppotone in a pint of hot water (not boiling), and after dissolved, strain and let cool. Then add the Rose Water and Cologne Spirits.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO IMPROVE YOUR COMPLEXION?

One of the best features about this toilet preparation is that it can be easily and conveniently prepared at home, thereby keeping a supply of it at all times upon the toilet table.

Obtain at your drug store Rose Water, 2 ounces; Cologne Spirits, 1 ounce; Eppotone (skin food), 4 ounces. Put the Eppotone in a pint of hot water (not boiling), and after dissolved, strain and let cool. Then add the Rose Water and Cologne Spirits.

DRINKING MEN NOT WANTED.

The above sign is now seen in many shops and offices in this city, because drinking men are unreliable.

Competition is too keen and life is too strenuous for an employer to keep men on his payroll whose nerves are unsteady and whose brains are not clear.

Every line of business is beginning to close its doors to drinking men. Drunkenness is a disease and like most diseases, has its remedy. Orrine is the reliable treatment and is sold under a positive guarantee to effect a cure or your money will be refunded. Orrine is in two forms; No. 1 which can be used without the patient's knowledge in tea, coffee or food; and No. 2 for those who wish to be cured.

The guarantee applies to both forms. Mailed in plain, sealed package on receipt of $1.00. Write for free booklets, mailed in plain envelope.

OPENING DAY OF THE OHIO STATE LEAGUE

Will Be Big Affair in Newark and Good Weather Will See Hundreds At the Game Tomorrow

Opening day is bound to be a big success for the Newark Baseball company, and every thing is in tip top shape. Now it's all up to the weather man to give a new brand of sunshine and warmth that he has packed away in a can and has so far overlooked this spring. The directors were on the jump yesterday and some of the merchants have agreed to close and let their clerks go out and root for the Molders in their opener.

The band that will play for the Elks will report at the club at noon and commence a series of open air concerts on the square. The owners of the autos that will carry the players have agreed to have their machines in front of the Elks headquarters at 1 o'clock promptly. The parade will be made at 3 o'clock and the first ball will be pitched in the opening of the new season.

The members of the Elks club will go to the game in a body and the right hand section of the grand stand has been reserved for them. This section will be decorated in the color of the lodge, and the preliminary practice of the player will be made to the music of the band. As stated yesterday Mayor Atherton will toss the first ball over the pan, then the pennant fight is on in full blast.

The teams have all made good showing and according to the dope there will be about six pennant winners in the Ohio State. This will probably be narrowed down to one before the season ends, but there will be a pretty race and the fans will get the worth of their money in base ball this year.

The following firms have subscribed for tickets and will allow their employees to attend the game. Many of the stores will close from 2 until 5 o'clock.

Just because a man doesn't get to the front, does it prove that he is a back number?

No, Maude, dear; it is doubtful if even a fishmonger could scale a prison wall.

"I just do this to keep my hand in," remarked the man as he pulled on his own gloves.

AMUSEMENTS

DANIEL SULLY.

As Father O'Neill in "The Golden Rule," Mr. Daniel Sully comes to us again in a marked characterization of the jovial and true-to-life priest, a portrayal that has placed Mr. Sully in the front rank of our character actors of today. He will long be remembered for his work in his former great success, "The Parish Priest." It is claimed by those who have been fortunate enough to witness both plays that "The Golden Rule" is a much better play, in that it not only has a stronger story, but contains a vein of humor found in only a few plays of the present day. At the Auditorium Thursday evening, April 30.

ORPHIUM.

Valere and Clark in their novelty hand balancing and wire walking act are surely deserving of great credit for a more novel and sensational performance.

MISS KATHRYN DEAGON, Of Ed and Kitty Deagon who made a big hit at the Orphium last night, performance has seldom been seen at this house. Edwin and Kitty Deagon occupied a prominent place, repeating his last season's success. The whole show is perfect in every detail and is being much appreciated by the good crowd so far this week.

FOREIGNER KILLED BY B. & O. PASSENGER

Deadly Sixth Street Crossing Claims Another Victim Early This Morning---
Engineer Glenn Not Blamed

Talle Stephan, a Roumanian Steps From Behind Pennsylvania Train Directly in Front of Fast Passenger---Dies at Sanitarium.

Stepping behind a Pennsylvania train bound for Columbus directly in front of B. & O. passenger No. 102 at the Sixth street crossing, Talle Stefan a Macedonian, 35 years of age, was struck by the train and carried almost a block before the train was stopped. He was terribly injured and died an hour later in the Sanitarium.

Stefan was carrying a bag of beans and waited at the Sixth street crossing for the Pennsylvania train to pass, then without looking to see whether another train was coming, he stepped directly on the B. & O. track and in front of the passenger bound for Newark. He was hurled on the pilot and carried almost to Fifth street, when his foot caught in a semaphore wire and he was jerked from the engine.

(When he was struck the bag of beans burst and were scattered along the track for almost a block. Engineer Charles Glenn and Conductor

Charles Dowd were in charge of the train which is due in Newark at 7:45. The train was running at a good rate of speed and was exactly on time when the accident occurred. Engineer Glenn could not see the man for the Pennsylvania train which was passing at that time, and no blame is attached to him for the accident.

The ambulance of Criss Bros. & Jones was called and the injured man rushed to the Sanitarium. He was given the best surgical attention, but his injuries proved serious and he died an hour later. His body was removed to the undertaking parlors of Criss Bros. & Jones and there prepared for burial.

Stefan has been in this country a year and a half and came to Newark last July from Cincinnati, being brought here by John Santa of the Foreign Exchange bank. He secured employment with the B. & O. railroad and has been a steady employee. He is married and his wife lives in the Turkish Empire, in the village of Monastir from whence he came to America eighteen months ago.

The funeral arrangements have not been made.

Zanesville, April 22.—J. W. French the liveryman, notified the police on Tuesday that he feared a horse and buggy that he had hired to a stranger Monday had been stolen. The man gave his name as A. A. Nye, of Newark, and stated that he was a traveling salesman. When the rig was not returned Monday night French was suspicious. Tuesday night, however, the stranger returned the rig and paid the bill in full without any question, stating that he merely spent the time in the country. He appeared surprised when he learned that the police had been on his trail.

JUDGE BRISTER

INTERVIEWED ON CONSTITUTIONALITY OF HARPER PENSION LAW.

Passes Opinion on Law Recently Enacted and Thinks It a Most Excellent Piece of Legislation.

An Advocate representative called on Probate Judge Brister and asked him what he thought about the opinion said to have been expressed by Attorney General Ellis concerning the constitutionality of the Harper Blind Pension law recently passed by the Legislature. Judge Brister said:

"In my view the opinion of the Attorney General is merely an opinion and has no binding force until sustained by a proper court. The Blind Pension Commission should go ahead until the Supreme Court decided the matter."

"In my opinion the law is constitutional and the former law was unconstitutional; that the Supreme court decided the former law unconstitutional because they said it was using public money for a private purpose. It seems to me that that ruling would abolish all the state public institutions, like the blind asylum, the deaf and dumb asylum, the imbecile asylum, etc., for the money expended there is public money and is used for a private purpose in caring for the afflicted ones of the state, just as much as in the case of the blind pension law. The only difference is that in these asylums the beneficiaries are taken from their homes and collected in the institutions, whereas under the blind pension law, they remain at home and receive a certain sum yearly. What difference that makes in the principle stated, that it is using public money for a private purpose, it would be very difficult to say. Indeed it would seem that the difference between spending public money for blind people in a state institution and at their homes is a difference between twiddle-dee-dum and twiddle-dee-dee. Moreover, statistics show that it costs much more to maintain people in state institutions than to pay them the pension allowed them at their homes. In my opinion the blind pension law is a most excellent and just law and ought to be sustained."

Mrs. Will Nickel and Mrs. Frank Bennett entertained at cards last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Nickel. The house was appropriately decorated for the occasion, and Easter eggs and chicks were much in evidence. An elegant luncheon was served. The affair was pronounced one of the most delightful of its kind ever held in Utica.

Miss Sara Reed of Fredericktown, has been the guest of Mrs. C. F. Gay the past week.

MATT HURLEY

degree may force another confession from them. In all probability the hearing of Prikagon will be held tomorrow morning.

The autopsy resulted in the finding of what appears to be a 44 caliber bullet which had entered the left side of the abdominal cavity and passed downward and backward, severing the left aortic artery and lodging between the hips in the muscles and bone, passing through three folds of the intestines in its course.

The prisoner who is charged by the women with the murder, was seen at the city prison late Wednesday afternoon and interviewed by Mr. John Santa, interpreter, in the presence of an Advocate reporter. The man gave his age as 23 years and said he had been in Newark this time but two weeks, having come here from Fredericktown, where he was employed on the B. & O. section crew. Prior to going to Fredericktown he worked on a repair gang employed by the city electric lines, here.

Prikagon stated positively that he was not away from his boarding house Tuesday night. He lives at the house conducted by John Popescu, in the Wehrle addition. The prisoner further stated that he had never seen the two women who accused him of the crime before they pointed him out at his arrest early Wednesday morning. He also stated that he has not owned a gun or revolver or had one in his possession since being in America. He has been in this country two years.

When asked if he knew where the house was where the murder was committed, the man stated that he did not even know the location of the street.

Public opinion seems to be giving Prikagon the benefit of much doubt, of his knowledge of any part of the affair, and it is believed that the women now being held know more about the case than they have told as yet.

The two women are known to have been jealous of each other regarding the attentions of Hurley, but they will say very little on the subject.
